

Planting 57 – Thelma Carpenter –South Central Field – Fall 2002

A portion of soybean field adjacent to remnant and old field portions of the unit. About 7 acres. Planted to a diverse mix. Used Gator mounted Truax seed slinger and used people off the back of pick up truck and hand planted many species too.

Tom Mitchell, unit steward, has seed species list.

Seed was rolled in with a cultipacker.