

Planting 59 – Thelma Carpenter – Fall 2003

This 7 acre corn field was planted by hand broadcasting off the back of a truck and by hand and gator spreader (I think) by Steward Tom Mitchell. We had tried to burn off the corn stubble with moderate success. I am not sure if the seed was cultipacked in after wards, but we had a nice snowy and cold winter to follow this planting.